OPERATIONAL EQUITY

27 September 2022

Latour Capital further strengthens its team with three new additions to the team.

Lilia Kadri joins Latour Capital as Compliance Officer. She began her career at PwC Luxembourg in financial audit specializing in the asset management industry. Then she joined the Argos Wityu Group, a pan-European investment fund where she held the position of Compliance Associate for 5 years.

Lilia is a graduate of INSEEC Business School.

Quentin Faulconnier joins Latour as ESG Director. He started his professional career in 2011 at Bureau Veritas in energy performance consulting and then worked for 5 years at EY in the Sustainable Performance & Transformation teams. Since 2020, Quentin was Sustainability Director at Axionable.

Quentin graduated from Ecole Centrale Paris.

Olivia ver Hulst joins Latour as an Associate. Prior to this, she worked as a Private Equity Associate at Tikehau Ace Capital (3 years) and started her career in Private Debt at Tikehau Capital (1 year).

Olivia graduated from Solvay Brussels School.
